1) Two proposals for the departmental safety award were received. By unanimous vote, the Moule group submission was chosen the winner.

2) The Safety Committee will begin a program of lab safety educational tours, during which the committee will visit a research lab and discuss safety with its group members. Tentatively, we will tour two labs per quarter.

3) The committee will begin an audit of SOPs for all CHMS research labs.